Sterling Aviation's B200 turboprop provides exceptional value for short to mid-length business or pleasure charters.

The Wisconsin based aircraft's pleasing neutral interior features light beige leather seating areas with spacious stow-away tables. A fully stocked refreshment center offers an additional luxury touch.

With seven seats and over 50 cu ft of cargo capacity, our King Air B200 is an outstanding value. Advanced Collins avionics in the cockpit and experienced, Flight Safety trained pilots provide the security you want and deserve.

The aircraft's white exterior is accented with blue and red stripes.
